FRI 8 – THU 14 OCT

NO TIME TO DIE (12A) | Screening until Thu 21 Oct

★★★★★ – Telegraph. Bond is back! Daniel Craig returns for the final time as the world's greatest spy in the highly anticipated No Time to Die. Having retired from active service, Bond finds himself pulled into one final mission by his old CIA friend, Felix Leiter.

THE ALPINIST (12A) | Fri 8 – Thu 14 Oct

★★★★★ – Time Out. Fans of Free Solo will rejoice at The Alpinist, an intimate and heart-pounding documentary about a visionary climber, a free-spirited 23-year-old making some of the boldest solo ascents in history.

THE MAN IN THE HAT (12A) | Fri 8 Oct, Mon 11 – Wed 13 Oct

“Superb... funny, charming and wonderful” – Stephen Fry. Ciarán Hinds is the titular man in the hat, on the run in a Fiat 500 across Northern France in this whimsical, charming film.

CONNI AND THE CAT (U) | Sat 9 – Sun 10 Oct

This sweet, animated children's tale follows Conni on her first school trip with her friends to an old countryside castle... and her cheeky cat Mau tags along too!

ULTRAVIOLENCE + Q&A (18) | Sat 9 Oct, 7pm

★★★★★ – Guardian. A special screening of this powerful documentary about resistance to police violence, followed by a Q&A with the filmmakers and the families of people killed by the police.

THE STORY OF A THREE DAY PASS (15) | Sun 10 Oct, 4.30pm

Melvin Van Peebles channels the exuberance of the French New Wave in his edgy, angsty, romantic first feature. An African American soldier meets and falls in love with a white woman during his leave in Paris.

FOXY BROWN (18) | Wed 13 Oct, 7pm

1970s icon Pam Grier stars as Foxy Brown, a vigilante who seeks retribution on the mobsters who murdered her boyfriend, in this feminist revenge thriller from the director of Coffy. Screening as part of a special Blaxploitation season for Black History Month.
