THE ELECTRICAL LIFE OF LOUIS WAIN (CERT TBC) | Fri 7 – Thu 20 Jan

★★★★ – Time Out. Will Sharpe's unconventional biopic is a whimsical journey through the life of eccentric British artist Louis Wain – a man whose quirky, psychedelic paintings singlehandedly altered the public's perception of cats forever. Gorgeous visuals and electrifying performances, from Benedict Cumberbatch (Sherlock, The Power of the Dog) as Wain and Claire Foy (The Crown, First Man) as his wife, combine to create a sincere and poignant film with a big heart. Audio description and captioned screenings available.

BOILING POINT (15) | Fri 7 – Thu 13 Jan

★★★★ – The Upcoming. Stephen Graham (This is England) leads this tense, riveting drama set in the pressure cooker world of a fine dining restaurant. Christmas, and head chef Andy's private life is crumbling around him – the last thing he needs is a chaotic dinner service on one of the busiest days of the year. Unfolding in real time in a single shot, we see tensions rise as Andy and his staff are pushed to their limits. Audio description and captioned screenings available. Screenings on Sat 9 Jan, 7.30pm and Wed 12 Jan, 5.50pm include a pre-recorded Q&A.

ENCANTO (PG) | Sat 8 – Sun 9 Jan

The Madrigals are an extraordinary family who live hidden in the mountains of Colombia in the magical town of Encanto.
