FRI 17 – THU 23 JUN

GOOD LUCK TO YOU, LEO GRANDE (15) | Fri 17 – Thu 30 Jun

★★★★ – Guardian. Emma Thompson (Saving Mr. Banks, Notting Hill) stars in Sophie Hyde's uplifting comedy about Nancy, a middle-aged widow, and a young sex worker named Leo (Daryl McCormack) who discover an unexpected bond in this hilarious and heartwarming tale of empowerment and self-discovery. Audio description, captioned, and socially distanced screenings available.

MEN (15) | Fri 10 – Thu 23 Jun

"★★★★★ – the work of a filmmaker who's giving you everything he's got" – Telegraph.

Alex Garland (Ex Machina, Annihilation) departs from his usual realm of sci-fi to inject his otherworldly intrigue into this twisted horror drama, starring the excellent Jessie Buckley and Rory Kinnear. Following the death of her ex-partner, a young woman seeks solace in the bucolic English countryside, but gets rather more than she bargained for. Captioned and socially distanced screenings available.

IL BUCO (U) | Fri 17 – Tue 20 Jun (excl Sun 19 Jun)

★★★★ – Guardian. Inspired by a 1961 potholing expedition, this gentle and mesmerising film is set on the Italian Calabrian plateau where a group of speleologists discover one of the world's deepest caves, the Bifurto Abyss. Italian with English subtitles. Tickets £5 for MyPhoenix Member & Friends.

WILD STRAWBERRIES (PG) | Fri 17 & Thu 23 Jun

★★★★ – Empire. Widely regarded as Ingmar Bergman's greatest work, the drama follows Professor Isak Borg's profound journey of self-discovery as he reflects on his life whilst travelling to his alma mater to receive an honorary degree. Swedish with English subtitles.

BOONIE BEARS: BACK TO EARTH (PG) | Sat 18 – Sun 19 Jun

Bramble is a timid bear desperate to get out of the shadow of his big brother Briar, and when a mysterious alien turns up in Pine Tree Forest, he has the opportunity to do just that. An extra-terrestrial adventure for all the family. Relaxed screening available.

AVIATION ARCHIVE: SONG OF THE CLOUDS (U) | Sun 19 Jun, 3pm

Film archivist Rob Foxon returns with a wonderful collection of archive film exploring the post-war British civil aviation industry in the days before the jet age, with newly discovered colour footage of the airports and airliners of the 1950s being shown for the first time.

THE ROAD DANCE (15) | Mon 20 – Thu 23 Jun

★★★★ – Loud and Clear. In an isolated Hebridean village during WWI, teenager Kirsty dreams of a life beyond the confines of her harsh, religious island with a young man she has been courting in secret. When tragedy strikes her twice, a thoughtful and emotive journey to womanhood begins.

MIND-SET + Q&A (18) | Wed 22 Jun, 8pm

Shot in the Midlands and winner of Best UK Feature at the Manchester Film Festival, Mind-set follows a seemingly mis-matched couple (Eilish Cahill and Steve Oram) through their individual struggles and isolation as two parts of a whole. The screening will be followed by a Q&A with director Mikey Murray, hosted by Ben Reynolds of MACE (the Media Archive for Central England).
