FRI 5 – THU 11 AUG

JOYRIDE (15) | Fri 5 – Thu 18 Aug

Motherhood isn't easy, and Joy (Olivia Colman) is doing everything she can to avoid facing it. Growing up isn't easy either, particularly for Mully (Charlie Reid), whose con man father exploits his youth to aid his crimes. Both eager to escape, a chance meeting brings them together and what entails is a chaotic, feel-good adventure on the run.

MINIONS: THE RISE OF GRU (U) | Fri 5 – Mon 8 Aug

“★★★★ – a concentrated hit of irrepressible goofball nonsense” – Observer. Gru and his lovable yellow companions are back in this brand new origin story. Following on from 2015's Minions, we've gone back in time to when Gru is 12-years-old and growing up in peaceful suburbia, spending his time poring over the exploits of supervillain crew the Vicious 6, and dreaming of one day being evil enough to join them!

WINGS OF DESIRE (12A) | Fri 5 – Mon 7 Aug

★★★★★ – Guardian. Over the skies of Berlin, two angels observe the humans below, shining rays of hope over those in distress. One longs to experience the physical world, while the other is uncertain of life outside their heavenly realm. The first screening in our short season celebrating the work of Wim Wenders.

BATTLE OF AMRITSAR (15) | Fri 5 & Sun 7 Aug

Through powerful archive footage, a traditional Sikh soundscape and soul-piercing poetry, this new documentary about the momentous events of June 1984 is an artistic tapestry that seeks to capture the soul of Sikh resistance, looking to the Battle of Amritsar as a guiding light to the future rather than a painful memory of the past. Tickets £8 (+ 50p admin fee for non-members).

FREAKSCENE: THE STORY OF DINOSAUR JR (15) | Sat 6 Aug

“★★★★ – beautifully balances the giddiness of a fan and the warmth of a close friend” – Guardian. An homage to Dinosaur Jr, one of the most influential bands on the US East coast, who inspired the 1990s grunge rock scene, including bands such as Nirvana and Sonic Youth.

ROBUST (15) | Mon 8 – Thu 11 Aug

★★★★ – Eye For Film. Screen veteran Gérard Depardieu (Cyrano de Bergerac) stars as ageing, disillusioned and curmudgeonly actor Georges. When his bodyguard and right hand man is on leave for a few weeks, Georges begrudgingly accepts substitute Aïssa (Lukumuena). A refreshing take on the odd-couple dynamic – witty and sharp, with real warmth between the two leads.

KURT VONNEGUT: UNSTUCK IN TIME (15) | Mon 8 – Thu 11 Aug

“★★★★ – a satisfyingly intimate profile” – Observer. Director Robert Weide's love letter and deep exploration of one of America's foremost writers examines Kurt Vonnegut's early inspiration, distinct writing voice and his prolific creative career.

BLIND AMBITION + Q&A (CERT TBC) | Thu 11 Aug

This touching and inspiring documentary follows four young Zimbabwean refugees who overcome unimaginable difficulties and end up competing in the World Blind Wine Tasting Championships. The screening includes a pre-recorded Q&A with the directors and three of the men, exclusive to cinemas.
