FRI 12 – THU 18 AUG

NOPE (15) | Fri 12 – Thu 25 Aug

"★★★★★ – A film that does for open skies what Jaws did for the beach" – Telegraph. Jordan Peele (Get Out, Us) returns with a chilling sci-fi horror. Deep in a California valley, James (Daniel Kaluuya) and Jill (Keke Palmer) become caretakers of their father's ranch after he is killed by a mysterious object falling from the sky. As they probe into the cause of his death, they encounter forces seemingly from another planet.

JOYRIDE (15) | Fri 12 – Thu 18 Aug

★★★★★ – The Times. Motherhood isn't easy and Joy is doing everything she can to avoid facing it. Growing up isn't easy either, particularly for Mully, a young teenager whose father is a con man. Meeting by chance, the pair unite in their plans to escape and go on the run together. Olivia Colman brings star quality to this entertaining Irish comedy drama.

HIT THE ROAD (12A) | Fri 12 – Thu 18 Aug

MINIONS: THE RISE OF GRU (U) | Fri 12 – Mon 15 Aug

"★★★★★ – a concentrated hit of irrepressible goofball nonsense" – Observer. Gru and his lovable yellow companions are back in this brand new origin story which goes back in time to when Gru is 12-years-old, spending his days poring over the exploits of supervillain crew the Vicious 6, and dreaming of one day being evil enough to join them.

THIEF (18) | Fri 12 – Sat 13 Aug

★★★★★ – Empire. Screening to mark the passing of Hollywood icon James Caan, Michael Mann's minimalist neo-noir looks as authentic and original today as it did in 1981. Determined to lead a normal life, professional safecracker Frank agrees to one last heist... but things are never simple when you're working for the mob.
